AMONG OURSELVES

--On September 22, Orin Cornett, Director of Cued Speech Programs, conducted a seminar on educational testing of hearing impaired persons, for the staff of the Educational Testing Service, at Princeton, New Jersey. This is the first of a series of seminars for the ETS Staff on testing of handicapped and minority persons.

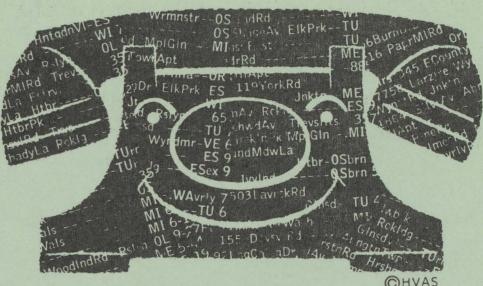

--Tom Lillis was an All-American lacrosse midfielder for the University of Maryland in 1952 and was honored on September 10, 1977 at Johns Hopkins University on the occasion of his 25th All American Anniversary.

--Steve Mathis addressed the D.C./Brasilia Committee of Partners of the Americas on September 10, relative to his recent three week on-site work in five major areas of Brazil.

--Michael Miller of the department of Romance Languages, who is on sabbatical this semester, participated in the Colloquium on Contemporary Theatre at West Virginia University on September 24. Mike will also present a paper in the session on the Nineteenth Century Spanish Novel at the Mountain Interstate Language Conference at East Tennessee State University on October 14. Esther Nelson will read a paper at the session on the Twentieth Century Latin American Novel at the Mountain Interstate Language Conference on October 14 and another at the Juan Benet session at the convention of the Modern Language Association in Chicago on December 28.

--Edward Merrill was elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the Committee for the Handicapped, People-to-People Program.

--Ann Wilson, mother of a KDES child and founder and director of Deafpride, Inc. (a member agency of the United Black Fund, Inc.) was chosen class valedictorian by her classmates of the United Way-United Black Fund loan executives following weeks of campaign training at Key Bridge Marriott this September.

MEETING ON VISUAL LITERACY PLANNED

The International Visual Literacy Association will be meeting in the SUB cardroom on Friday, Oct. 7, at 7:45 p.m.
to discuss forming an area chapter. The chapter activities will include workshops and discussions on the meanings and methods of visual literacy. All interested persons from campus are encouraged to attend this meeting. An interpreter will be available.

For more information contact Joan Allerton, Office of Research, ext. 547.

SPORTS NEWS

The fall sports season has begun and we will attempt to keep you up to date on all scores.

--FOOTBALL: The team lost its season opener to the University of D.C. 13-8 on Sept. 24.
It was a bitter pill to swallow considering we had one touchdown called back due to a penalty and on two other occasions we had first down and goal to go.

--FIELD HOCKEY: Gally 0 Georgetown 2
Gally 0 Essex C.C. 7

--SOCCER: Gally 0 Allegheny 0
Gally 4 Wash. Bible 3
Gally 6 Mary Washington 1

--WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL:

Gally 8	Georgetown 15
Gally 12	George Mason 15
Gally 4	Georgetown 15
Gally 11	George Mason 15

--CROSS COUNTRY: (Low score wins)
